See the Stills & Watch the Video! This must-see video can help you make vital decisions which will affect your family's welfare if a disaster occurs. The threat of a natural or man made disaster is something no one wants to think about. Every day we read of natural disasters such as hurricanes, severe drought, wildland fires, power outages and floods. The effects of Global Warming will continue to be in the news as our climate changes. Solar activity can disrupt power grids and disrupt communications satellites. Chemical spills and transportation accidents can release dangerous elements into the air in seconds. Learn how you can be notified of severe weather, local disasters, and dangerous events 24 hours a day. Our world has changed since September 11th. The threat of terrorism, both foreign and domestic, within the borders of the U.S. is real. Learn how to prepare for bio terrorism, dirty bombs, and other acts of terrorism. The threat of a global Influenza Pandemic is in the news every day. Learn how a few simple steps can protect you and your family. Learn how to obtain clean drinking water from almost any source of water, learn how to store and use emergency food supplies, and learn what health and safety equipment you can have in your home. And if you must evacuate your home, you will learn how to prepare an escape kit that contains important papers, computer files, and other valuable items for you and your family.

Knowing what you and your family can do to prepare for any type of disaster will help reduce stress if a natural or man made disaster occurs. Having the proper supplies and knowing how to use them can make a difference between life and death in time of an emergency. Emergency Preparedness - Awareness & Survival DVD is ideal for the public, ham radio operators, parents, businesses, emergency managers, EMS personal, and government agencies.
